Angelo Cataldi Kicks off Christmas TOMORROW by Marrying a Lucky Couple at Steven Singer Jewelers

Philadelphia, PA.- On December 19th, 2018 the WIP morning show will be hosting their annual holiday party at Steven Singer Jewelers. The morning will be full of fun, prizes, and just what every holiday party needs: a wedding! One lucky couple will be given an engagement ring, a set of wedding bands and the recently ordained WIP Morning Show host, Angelo Cataldi will marry this lucky couple live on-air inside Steven Singer Jewelers' showroom.

On top of a wedding, the next-level antics of the Morning Show's Annual Holiday Party will also be in full force. There will be Sports, VIP guests, a prize-wheel full of diamond jewelry from Steven Singer and rumor has it, a special appearance from Santa himself. Santa may look a lot like WIP's Hollis Thomas.

The party isn't just for special guests. Listeners are invited to stop down for a front row look at this once a year event. There will be swag, Wawa donuts and coffee and a lot of fun to start the day off right.

"There's been a hole in our hearts since the decade long World's Largest Bubble Bath ended. Will this replace it? I don't know, but I know we have an excellent partnership with Angelo and the team and we'll continue to do great and crazy things together." Steven Singer reminisced.
